About the AuthorMark is certified as a CFIC (Certified Financial Independent Consultant), DES (Debt Elimination Specialist) and a CCC (Consumer Credit Counselor) and was a loan officer with Gateway Funding as well as being a public adjuster. He had the largest Adult Evening Class in the state of Pennsylvania. Mark has worked with many Mortgage Bankers and has been an Associate Member of the Greater Philadelphia Mortgage Bankers Association. He also has been on financial talk shows and the main speaker for many groups, including the Bucks County CPA Association. Mark has helped over 2,000 clients who, without his help, would not otherwise own a home. He has also helped many people protect their homes. Mark, when trying to help his clients with challenges, found that many of his clients were having troubles with their insurance companies with homeowners insurance claims. So Mark started working with a public adjusting firm learning how to become a public adjuster. He received his license as a solicitor adjuster and became a Regional Vice President with this company. The company, however, would not train any new adjusters in the area where he lived. So, Mark changed companies and devoted one full year learning the business of adjusting. He had gained such an understanding of the business that this company made him the Company Growth Director. He has taught many of people to become Public Adjusters which aid him in helping others.
